Dear Henry:

Reference is made to your letter dated 24 April 1957, regarding Navy audit of the work to be performed at Stanford Electronic Laboratories.

It is requested that arrangements be made by your office for Navy audit.

Sincerely,

George

Dear George:

Reference is made to your letter dated 18 April 1957 concerning problems raised by the contractor at Walt's place.

With respect to insurance costs for Tech Reps and excess per diem costs, we are studying the matter and will advise you by a separate communication as to our opinions.

Reference is made to the question concerning the subcontract for work at Stanford Electronic Laboratories. The Navy does have audit cognizance at that location. I understand that the amount involved in this subcontract is approximately $20,000. Accordingly, if the security implications of the subcontract work permits, I heartily recommend that the Navy be permitted to perform the audit. If not, then I recommend a Ramo-Wooldridge auditor perform the audit as they have on certain T&M work. Your advice in this connection will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Dear Henry,

While Dan was out there on the last trip Walt asked whether the requirement for three bids was met when only one responsive bid was received. In view of the urgency of all of the work being performed under A-101 we will consider this procedure as meeting the three bid requirement. When this time factor becomes less critical, this decision will again be reviewed.
